FRAP 26(b) provides, with exceptions not relevant here, that “[f]or good cause, the court may extend the time prescribed by these rules or by its order to perform any act.” In the present matter, good cause exists because of the matters described in the Petitioner’s Motion To Correct or Modify the Record under FRAP 10.

The Appellant did not contact the other parties before filing this motion because there was not sufficient time prior to the deadline.

According to the schedule provided by the Court, Petitioner's response is due May 22, 2024. Petitioner requests a stay until such time as the record submitted by the District Court is corrected with the missing records cited by Appellant provided to this Circuit Court.

Dated: May 22, 2024

Respectfully submitted:

/s/Brad Greenspan
